Technogel®

Restful sleep and revitalization in your daily routine are fundamental to your health and well-being – that's why Technogel® developed a technology that supports you on your way to a rejuvenated life, day by day. But what makes Technogel® so unique and innovative?

Technogel® deforms in three dimensions, so it can mold perfectly to your body in any position and relieve tension. This gives you the best possible night's rest! The pleasant cooling effect of the gel, molded into a patented tower design, makes Technogel® a champion when it comes to regulating temperature. This helps you have longer periods of deep sleep and feel more rested when you wake up – and that's a promise we can back up! We have demonstrated in numerous clinical studies that Technogel® provides regenerative lowering of the body temperature.

Technogel® products are marked by continuous development, meticulously selected high-grade materials, and sophisticated design – produced under fair manufacturing conditions in Italy.

Technology

Innovative 3D adaptability

Through extensive development work, we came up with a combination of Technogel® and memory foam that adapts to the contours of your body in three dimensions. Sensitive regions including the spine and joints are relieved in just the right places while being correctly supported.

Experience the special feeling of resting on Technogel®.

Proven effective

When we sleep, our entire body experiences rest and regeneration. Healthy sleep can improve memory performance, reduce stress, boost creativity – and even prolong our lives. Clinical tests have shown that sleeping on Technogel® mattresses extends deep sleep and significantly improves sleep continuity. The result is improved overall well-being.

Unrivalled temperature regulation

Technogel® boasts special thermal properties that create a pleasantly fresh, cooling sensation when it comes into contact with your body. Thanks to high thermal conductivity and a cube design, the gel absorbs and efficiently dissipates excess heat. This results in optimal sleeping conditions, for an even better night's rest!

We care about your health

That's why Technogel® is biocompatible and certified in accordance with product class 1 of OEKO-TEX® STANDARD 100. Our products don't contain any harmful substances, and ensuring the high quality of the materials we use is a top priority so we can guarantee our products are safe and long lasting. That way, you can rest easy knowing that your young dreamers are sleeping safely, too.

ORIGINAL Pillow Collection

Our ORIGINAL range gives you deep, rejuvenating sleep thanks to healthy temperature regulation and pressure relief exactly where it's needed, while gently stabilizing your head and neck. In every pillow, the key to refreshing sleep is Technogel®, structured as a unique tower design. Breathable materials and our patented vertical ventilation carry away excess heat, giving you optimal sleeping conditions every night.

Our unique Technogel® with its ability to deform in three dimensions is combined with premium memory foam, resulting in a high degree of adaptability as well as ergonomic alignment of the cervical spine. In recognition of the importance of facial cleanliness, both the inner and outer covers have an antibacterial finish, and the outer cover has a zipper so it can be removed and washed. The result is a product that gets top marks for cleanliness and offers incredible hygiene benefits, not just for people with allergies.

LAB Pillow Collection

Starting now, sleepless nights are a thing of the past! Our LAB collection was developed by the researchers and engineers at Technogel® to eliminate specific sleep deficits caused by health conditions. Sleeping with medical equipment has never been this comfortable and restful.

The innovative 3D Technogel® surface structure offers efficient pressure relief for sensitive muscles in the neck. Plus, the gel features perfect moisture- and temperature-regulating properties. The gel's unique, patented structure wicks away moisture and dissipates excess heat. Because they are permanently elastic, the gel and memory foam guarantee the perfect balance between pressure relief and support.

The antibacterial inner cover protects the pillow's core and ensures long-lasting freshness. The outer cover likewise features an antibacterial finish consisting of hygienic fibers, as well as a zipper to allow for removal and washing. This sets the conditions for safe, healthy sleep – so you can lay back and rest with an easy mind!

BACK & SIDE

Our BACK & SIDE pillow is cupped in the center with higher edges to promote sleeping on your back and to provide ergonomic support for your sides. The core of this orthopedic pillow made of specially developed memory foam comes covered with cooling Technogel®. With its patented, temperature-regulating properties, the gel ensures optimal sleeping conditions and a restful night. The inner and outer covers come with an antibacterial finish, which acts as a hypoallergenic shield to protect you against unwanted “visitors” while you sleep.

Extra Thin	66x40x7 cm (26x15.7x2.8")
Thin	66x40x9 cm (26x15.7x3.5")

- People who primarily sleep on their backs

LAB

The ergonomic butterfly shape of the LAB head pillow adapts to any sleeping position but accommodates the needs of those who want to eliminate counter-pressure on their shoulders in particular. Our promise of a more restful night's sleep is always based on the temperature-regulating sleep technology of Technogel® in cube design. This technology is complemented by the patented air tunnels routed through the flexible memory foam as well as a hygienic cover with antibacterial properties that protects the pillow's core. The LAB pillow also features extra hygiene properties in the soft outer comfort cover – mold and bacteria don't stand a chance anymore.

Thin	66x40x9 cm (26x16x3.5")
Medium	66x40x11 cm (26x16x4.5")
Thick	66x40x14 cm (26x16x5.5")

+ We recommend the LAB pillow for:

- Side, back, and stomach sleepers who shift between these positions
- People who want to prevent counter-pressure on their shoulders

CPAP

The Technogel® CPAP pillow was specially developed to give you the best possible night's sleep while wearing a medical-grade respirator mask. Ergonomically curved pillow contours adapt to your shoulder region and ensure your head and neck are securely held. The C-shaped recesses on the sides provide space for nearly any respirator mask and allow maximum comfort for side and back sleepers. When making this product, Technogel® stayed true to its standard of using only materials that are free of harmful substances in the pillow's production. The proven Technogel® tower design, breathable air tunnels throughout the flexible high-tech memory foam, and the hygienic cover with an antibacterial finish guarantee perfect sleeping conditions.

Extra Thin	66x40x7 cm (26x16x2.8")
Thin	66x40x9 cm (26x16x3.5")
Medium	66x40x11 cm (26x16x4.5")

Give it a try!

MATTRESS COLLECTION

Restful sleep, with zero compromises.

When you opt for a Technogel® mattress, you make a worthwhile investment in your well-being. Our formula for high-quality sleep with zero compromises is based on unique, patented gel technology.

Technogel® deforms in three dimensions, so it can mold perfectly to your body in any position and relieve tension to give you restful sleep. The pleasant cooling effect of the gel combined with the patented tower design makes Technogel® a champion when it comes to regulating temperature. This results in unique properties that let Technogel® set new standards for customized comfort while you sleep.

Multiple clinical studies have shown that our gel lowers body temperature, letting you sleep deeply for significantly longer periods – so you have an even more restful night.

ADVANCE

Mattress Collection

Experience unrivaled relief from head to toe with our most innovative collection of mattresses. Our ADVANCE collection raises the bar for superior ergonomic comfort and cutting-edge temperature regulation. The interplay between Technogel® and the patented air tunnels creates pleasantly refreshing sleeping conditions by efficiently dissipating excess heat thanks to a temperature-regulating effect. Our unique Technogel®, which deforms in three dimensions, is integrated in a mattress topper in three zones with 0.8"-thick gel towers and combined with a premium seven-zone foam mattress to provide a high degree of ergonomic support in the shoulder, lumbar, and pelvic zones.

The mattress cover has a zipper so it can be removed for washing or to switch between summer and winter covers.
